Methodological Note On disclosure of Transfers of Value

- Country UK
- Company Atnahs Pharma UK Ltd
- Period Covered January 1st to December 31st, 2024
- Description Methodological Note on disclosure of Transfers of Values made to Healthcare Professionals, Healthcare Organisations and/or Patient Organisations, following the ABPI Code of Practice.

5. Scope

The disclosure covers all Transfers of Value required to be disclosed pursuant to the ABPI Code of Practice which have been made by Atnahs during the Period covered to Healthcare Professionals, Healthcare Organisations and/or Patient Organisations; with regards to prescription-only medicines.

Fees paid in connection with research & development activities or market research are not disclosed.

Definitions of capitalized terms which are not elsewhere defined in this Methodological Note can be found in section 9 below.

6. Methodology

General Methodology

Currency: Transfers of Value are disclosed in GBP (payments made in CAD are translated at an exchange rate of £1 GBP = $1.8372, payments made in EUR are translated at an exchange rate of £1 GBP = €1.2081. Exchange rates as of 04/03/2025 12:47pm)

VAT and other taxes: Disclosed amounts include VAT and any other applicable taxes.

Late recording: If after the publication of the report, Atnahs realises that a Transfer of Value made during the Period Covered has not been disclosed, due to the fact that such has been recorded in Atnahs's books after the publication of the report, Atnahs will republish an updated report.

Multi-year contracts: In case of multi-year contracts, disclosure is made for the year on which the Transfer of Value is made to the relevant recipient.

Personal Data: If consent required under applicable data privacy laws and regulations has not been given by the data subject to Atnahs (or if Atnahs might have difficulties in proving such consent), the Transfer of Value is disclosed on an anonymous basis. If the majority of Healthcare Professionals have not given the relevant consent (or such consent is difficult to prove), Transfers of Value are disclosed on aggregate level only.

Methodology per Category

Transfers of Value made to Patient Organisations: Atnahs discloses the amounts attributable to the following Transfer of Values which can be reasonably allocated to Patient Organizations, on an individual, named basis: (i) financial and in-kind support; and (ii) fees for services, including a description of the nature of the Transfer of Value and the amount provided.

Transfers of Value made to Healthcare Professionals for provided services: Atnahs discloses, on an individual, named basis, amounts attributable to fees for services (excluding expenses such as meals and drinks, travel and accommodation), which can be reasonably allocated to Healthcare Professionals for the provision of services, such as consultancy services.

Transfers of Value related to meetings, educational support and site visits: Atnahs discloses Transfers of Value in this category as per Chapter 5 of the European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations (EFPIA) Code of Practice. This is: the total number (but not actual monetary value) of events, for which an individual Healthcare Professional has received support (which may include payment of registration fees, travel and/or hotel costs). Support is disclosed per individual Healthcare Professional in the following categories and sub-categories: (i) sponsorship for attending a third party organised congress, where Atnahs pays for registration fees, travel and/or accommodation (indicating the location of the event), (ii) site visits; and (iii) meetings for which a Healthcare Professional receives hotel accommodation and/or airplane travel funded by Atnahs.

Transfers of Value to Healthcare Organisations: For the following sub-categories, Atnahs discloses Transfers of Value as follows: (a) for fees for services and consultancy: aggregated honoraria (excluding expenses such as meals and drinks, travel and accommodation) paid by Atnahs to a Healthcare Organisation in exchange for the provision of services; and (b) for grants and donations: the aggregated monetary amounts and a brief description of the nature of the grant or donation.

8. Time of disclosure

The Transfers of Value report will be accessible online (via the link mentioned in section 7 above) for 3 years as of the date of its publication.

9. Definitions

Atnahs means the company indicated in section 2 of this Methodological Note.

Country shall mean the relevant country indicated in section 1 of this Methodological Note.

Healthcare Organisation is any entity (i) that is a healthcare, medical or scientific association or organisation (irrespective of the legal or organisational form) such as a hospital, clinic, foundation, university or other teaching institution or learned society or (ii) through which one or more Healthcare Professionals provide healthcare services. For the avoidance of doubt, wholesalers, distributors, and similar commercial intermediaries are not considered Healthcare Organisations.

Healthcare Professional means someone who: (i) is a member of the medical, dental, pharmacy or nursing professions; and/or (ii) is able, in the course of his or her professional activities, to prescribe, recommend, purchase, supply and/or administer medicinal products.

EFPIA Code of Practice means the European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations (EFPIA) Code.

Patient Organisation is a not-for-profit organisation which is patient-focused, and in which patients or their carers represent a majority of members in its governing bodies.

Period Covered means the year indicated in section 3 of this Methodological Note.

Transfer of Value is a transfer of value made directly or indirectly by Atnahs for the benefit of a Healthcare Professional or a Healthcare or Patient Organisation. A Transfer of Value can include anything of value, including monetary payments or in-kind benefits, such as meals, travels, accommodation, etc.
